

HAYLEY FRANKLIN

ASSOCIATE ▪ HFRANKLIN@STEWARTROBBINS.COM ▪ PHONE: 225-231-9998

Education:

Louisiana State University, B.A. English: Rhetoric, Writing, and Culture with minors in Mass Communication and Linguistics, 2018
LSU Paul M. Hebert Law Center, Juris Doctor and Degree in Comparative Law (DCL), 2020
Participant in LSU's 3 + 3 Program.

Associations and Memberships:

Federal Bar Association
International Women's Insolvency and Restructuring Confederation
American Bankruptcy Institute
Baton Rouge Bar Association
Louisiana State Bar Association

Prior Positions and Experience:

McGlinchey Stafford, PLLC, Baton Rouge Office,
September 2020 – December 2021

Ms. Franklin is a 2020 cum laude graduate of Louisiana State University's Paul M. Hebert Law Center. At LSU, she served as a Board of Advocates Member after being a Tullis Moot Court Quarter-Finalist and a Flory Mock Trial Semi-Finalist. She was also sent by LSU to compete in the ABA Section of Labor and Employment Law Trial Ad Competition and the Saul Lefkowitz Intellectual Property Moot Court Competition. During her time at LSU Law, she was also an extern for a Louisiana Middle District Bankruptcy Judge Douglas Dodd, a research assistant to Professor Paul Baier, and a Criminal Law tutor for Professor Ken Levy. She was also a member of LSU's Journal of Energy Law and Resources, where she served as the Online Articles Editor. After clerking at McGlinchey Stafford beginning in June 2019, Ms. Franklin was hired as an attorney there, and she worked in the Commercial Litigation, Bankruptcy, and Appellate sections at McGlinchey Stafford, PLLC until December 2022. Ms. Now enjoys practicing bankruptcy full time and is licensed to practice before all state and federal courts in Louisiana.